T Capital Partners Co., Ltd.

Announcement of acquisition of OPTOWL

T Capital Partners Co., Ltd. (“TCAP”) announced that a newly established company managed and operated by TCAP funds acquired OPTOWL Co., Ltd. (“OPTOWL”; f/k/a The Optical Business, a part of Ricoh Industrial Solutions Inc.).

OPTOWL achieved inventing an automotive stereo camera, an essential system component of ADAS (Advanced Driver-Assistance Systems), and industrial stereo camera now mainly supplied to forklifts, by leveraging Ricoh-originated competitive optical technology. These businesses have gained high evaluation in the market. OPTOWL also produces the optical lens modules, which contain a cutting-edge technology of ultra-short throw lenses, and supplies them to the manufacturers of laser TV, PGU (Picture Generation Unit) and other devices.

TCAP, by fully leveraging its accumulated management skills and knowledge through our investments, plans to give proactive supports especially for human resource management and marketing and helps OPTOWL to achieve its value creation.
