TOKIO MARINE CAPITAL CO., LTD.

Launch of our new English website

We are pleased to announce the launch of new English website on February 13, 2018.

In addition to redesigning the website, we newly described the explanation about investment process, investee support and types of investment in relation to business succession and spin-off so that visitors can recognize our business overview more easily. Also, the new website can be displayed on both smart phones and desktop PCs.

We will continue to enhance information on the website. Thank you.
